

First Steps to School Readiness was created in 1999 by the South Carolina General Assembly for the purpose of having every child in South Carolina arrive at kindergarten ready to learn. Sadly, many South Carolina children possess one or more risk factors that put them at high risk (more than 1 in 3 chance) for “early school failure” – either being retained or scoring below grade level in reading or math – by third grade.

First Steps exists to bring together efforts in early childhood at the state and local level, public and private, to focus and intensify services and assure the most efficient use of all available resources to serve the needs of South Carolina’s young children and their families.

First Steps works to accomplish its mission through a state coordinating office and a network of county partnerships (46), that provide services in six major areas impacting school readiness:

Healthy Start

Family Strengthening

Early Intervention

Quality Childcare

Early Education

School Transition

Child Care Quality Enhancement

For infants, toddlers and preschoolers, the quality of care they receive is crucial to their healthy development and eventual readiness for school. First Steps offers the resources that are commonly available to publicly-funded early childhood programs, such as educational materials, on-site professional development, and other support to affiliated child development centers.

First Steps' Child Care Quality Enhancement (QE) produces measurable improvements in the quality of care provided to young children. Each child in our affiliated centers receives FREE individual developmental assessments. Participating child care providers are selected through a competitive process that requires a strong level of commitment to QE.

Engaging Families Through Literacy

CCFS partners with a national literacy organization, Raising A Reader, to offer an evidence based early literacy and parent engagement program that works to improve the reading readiness skills of young children.

The program's mission is to engage caregivers in a routine of book sharing with their children to foster healthy brain development, healthy relationships, a love of reading, and the language and literacy skills critical for school success.
